Now to get a better high knee jump, you're going to begin with your feet shoulder width apart, okay, toes pointed out, straight ahead, okay, chest out, you're going to drop into a quarter squat. From here you're going to explode off the ground and you're going to bring your knees to your chest or you can put your hands out, okay, knees to your hands, don't extend your hands down to your knees okay? So you drop into that squat, make it one motion, explode up, knees to your chest. I'm here, nice and high okay? Once again, now when I land, I land nice and soft at the top of my motion, I land nice and soft, soft bend in my knees and I sink right to another squat okay? You don't want to land hard and really bust up your knees.
